Bio

Prismatix is a rawstyle producer and DJ working the hard, distorted end of the spectrum. Gated kicks at the core, dark euphoria on top, drops engineered for the front row.

Prismatix builds rawstyle the way an engineer builds a weapon: deliberately. Every kick is shaped, every screech placed, every drop timed for the moment the room stops thinking. Based in Brunswick and rooted in the german hard-dance scene, the sound sits where dark and euphoric collide. Gated kicks at the core, melody used as a detonator rather than decoration.
